I find the way he can butcher the English language, insult people (poorly, I might add), and act like a general fucktard and yet claim he has done nothing wrong (or, as he so eloquently puts it, "rong") to be both shocking, and highly amusing.

EDIT: I second the "Internet literacy test". Though people would probably turn off their stupidity for it and then just start being dumb, it would at least weed out the genuine idiots.

Furthermore, if he has evaded a ban, drop the banhammer (again.) And, from the presented evidence, the case is quite strong against him.
