damn that sucks man, I was going crazy when it was doing that to me - not really sure what sorted it in the end - a format is always a good idea if you havn't done it for a while though.

Check through that thread, there were a lot of suggestions there, I am sure one of them was the thing that fixed it for me.

tbh, I didn't really get what the ss's were supposed to prove, its a picture of a mammy firing at a wall?
