I've used 5 different serials (or more, who knows) including newly-purchased retail ones. And all I get from Olaf and his crew of tardkarts is "lol get a valid unshared serial!" When did this "unshared" bullshit start anyways? The real C&Cs were always all about sharing your disc and serial with a friend.

(Proof they are killing the C&C spirit!)

maybe part of their contract with EA specifies they have to encourage people to go buy more stuff from EA?
