UN's just a bunch of asshats...yeah they run it as a clan server, but Alk sells it off as a great public server....but holy shit you have to read their rules...

tthom is actually going through logs finding anyone that spoke ill of UN to ban them...omfg....NOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO someone said something bad about that asshat? Holy crap...call the cops...

Alk had it going good for a long time...his hands off approach is what's led to their decline IMHO...power hungry asses joined and decided to make it their personal server and force others to abide and because tthom feels that they are superior, no matter how fucking stupid a member or mod is, they are right...

Hell...people get kicked and then banned for things like shooting the OB on Sunken and a mod cries that it's B2B (not one moron here thinks B2B is possible on Sunken) or a player places a nuke for a distraction a few days ago and that same mod is kicking them...lol....it's hilarious to read the reasons people get kicked and banned...funnier ones are when people mock other clans...lol...that's kickable too, if the mod is in that other clan...hell...people like me get banned from the game for flaming on the flame forums...lol

Most of the senior members don't even agree with how tthom runs and ruins it....but they don't want him mad since, as you can read the forum, he is the Nazi Alk claimed me to be...lol...even though honestly, I never banned or edited one forum post like his boys do...and hell...outside of vulgar pricks...I don't think I banned anyone else...keep in mind it all ended before BH came out...I'd kick people, but never ban...I hated seeing the ban list...

But then again, lets keep in mind Alk clears the ban list every month...anal retentive assholes in UN go through and reban the people they really don't like...makes you wonder wtf is going on...Alk deletes them, assholes add em back...is Alk doing it just to piss off tthom or does tthom not give a shit about what Alk thinks...ponder that for a few and post your own answer...cause I don't know which to think...

It's an utter failure now like Renbattle was in the end...the wrong people got power hungry and didn't give a shit about the community...the servers that do...always prosper and keep it going...and the players know it...and the server owners that run those servers know that they are doing right...to them I say thanks!
