KennyYes

westwood started to make more renegades, but then I heard that EA cancelled the new renegades since their target audience is getting younger and younger. I want to drive a prism tank :twisted:

actually according to E3, and all the global statistics, the gaming audience is getting older, like for example, one of EA's biggest titles "The Sims Online" and "The Sims" is mostly played by 30-50 year old house wives.
