Bah. I play to have fun a lot of the time. It's just a goofy-ass game, afterall, like World of Warcraft. Now if you wanna go prove your supreritory some place, go play some real stuff, like paintball, or better yet, Airsoft. Now them some "win-or-die" kind'a games. Shit, even Dance Dance Revolution is like that to a degree. Renegade? Not so much so considering things like...I dunno... You run around and jump and bounce and can still land a perfect headshot with the Sniper Rifle if you're lucky. XD

Don't mind me. I'm a little hyper, so I'm babbling.
