There may have been a few new bypasses, most of which have been fixed in a patch of Renguard 1.3, but there hasn't been any new cheats lately. Renegade has had the same cheats since 2004.

Don't post questions like this, nagging isn't going to get it released any faster. Not nagging just posting a question? Well then if your not nagging then you don't need to post that question.

This thread is dumb, doesn't belong in this forum, and the first post isn't looking for Renguard client help. Get what I'm talking about COUGH:mods:COUGH.
