I'm not sure where to post this but I've got a bypasser to report.

Not exactly sure if it's allowed to post IP addresses and IRC logs, so I'll wait with that till someone tells me to post or to pass the info by a different method.

Player ingame name was: Tw34km3

Did one shot kills with every weapon, and also repaired vehicles from his team in an instant. He was running renguard!

Either a new hack is out, or someone is constantly bypassing under another identity (ingame name + IP), cause this is the 3rd bypasser I have seen this month, only problem is I couldn't retrieve their IP's due to a malfunctioning brenbot.

Reckneya.

Post the IRC logs please, no IP addresses though. Also, Tw34km3 has cheated in other servers under the same identity (Gamerz0ne and Black-Cell), so nobody stole Tw34km3's identity. His IP has changed multiple times though... Logs need to contain both evidence of a cheat and evidence that the server registered the bypasser as running RenGuard.
