Easy.

The old law passed away when christ was made the ultimate sacrifice.

Ephesians 2

14For he himself is our peace, who has made the two one and has destroyed the barrier, the dividing wall of hostility, 15by abolishing in his flesh the law with its commandments and regulations. His purpose was to create in himself one new man out of the two, thus making peace, 16and in this one body to reconcile both of them to God through the cross, by which he put to death their hostility. 17He came and preached peace to you who were far away and peace to those who were near. 18For through him we both have access to the Father by one Spirit.

Romans7

6But now, by dying to what once bound us, we have been released from the law so that we serve in the new way of the Spirit, and not in the old way of the written code.

There are multiple covenants God made with humans to try to achieve a relationship with man. Man violated each and every one of them.

God provided a final solution by taking the initiative to oslve the problem knowing we were a hopeless mess.

Jesus was that answer. He died as a perfect sacrifice to atone once and for all for all sins. No longer would man need to constantly sacrifice to atone. All that is required to be atoned for through the death of christ is:

Acts 2:38

38Peter replied, "Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins. And you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. 39The promise is for you and your children and for all who are far off—for all whom the Lord our God will call."

40With many other words he warned them; and he pleaded with them, "Save yourselves from this corrupt generation." 41Those who accepted his message were baptized, and about three thousand were added to their number that day.
