Got those pics I mentioned earlier. Sorry for the delay but some of the rooms needed some work that I hadn't the time or motivation to do until now.

Here's the new living room for the mansion area.

This is the rec room for the facility.

The art room is still pretty much empty but at least you can get a view of the basic layout. Paintings and other displayables will come soon enough.

I agree they're all using simmilar texturing, but I think it feels appropriate to the rooms. Maybe I'll decide on some better texturing for 'em later.
