Quote:Dave: The civil war would only come about if people knew that the country was attacked by its own government. What better way to cover it up than to blame terrorists, and then start a war to take the suspicion away from the government? What was that movie called? Wag the dog?

My thought on it is the people who claim that these "conspiracies" are taking place must think that they know the government attacked it's own citizens on purpose. If that is not true, then I do not believe that the people who do believe that these conspiracies are taking place would be making a big deal out of 9/11.
