My boyfriend (Blazer on here) was in a high-rise condo near Washington, DC, on 9/11. He saw, with his own eyes, the plane right before it hit the Pentagon. It passed so closely to him that he could almost see the passengers inside if the plane weren't going so fast.

See... no matter how convincing movies are, they can't compete with hundreds of eyewitnesses all saying they saw the same thing. I used to somewhat buy Loose Change, but I thought about it long and hard and now I'm back on the "it was an attack" bandwagon. I think some videos should be released to put some stuff to rest.

However, I don't think "why would we hurt our own country?!" is a valid argument. Don't be so naive to think our government is completely open to us and wouldn't do something drastic for gain in the higher powers.
