{IRA}IronHorse wrote on Wed, 02 August 2006 21:14 First off why would a person that has been running Renegade servers for over 5 years on Westwood and GSA play on a Black-cell server? First of all, Renegade has not been running on public servers for 5 years, since it was only released to retail stores on February 26, 2002. Quote: Kids these days have lack of education and no respect as you can plainly see by the comments in this forum posted by wannabe's like Black-Cell and the people they have in charge such as this character Havoc.

You're telling me I don't know who hardkil is, but you're assuming I'm young and uneducated. Right now, I am nearly 21 years of age. I graduated Taft High School in the Honors Program, was an AP Scholar With Honor, was a member of the California Scholarship Federation, received the Governor's Scholar Award twice for my Stanford-9 scores, and I am currently attending the University of California at Santa Barbara. I guess that means I'm uneducated. I think that's enough about my academic history, though. As for the lack of respect, I believe that anyone who threatens to do harm to others deserves no respect whatsoever. Regarding my status, I'm only a half-mod at Black-Cell, so I have absolutely no executive power. I only enforce rules, and one of them is "do not threaten other players or the server". It's not explicitly stated on our rules page, but it should be fairly obvious to anyone with a brain that threatening to hack people and send them worms is wrong.

Quote: Whoever, that moron is should be writing an apology and posting that up here. Not posting up some pathetic call out "I just wanted to let you know if anyone shows up in any servers other than Black-Cell in the next few days using my nickname, it's hardkil impersonating me, so please don't use a perm ban if you don't have to. After that, I'll find a way to prove it's actually me" This really makes me laugh..... You're going to prove your ID is you. Isn't that ironic in the sense that you never stopped to think that the person you are bad mouthing on here isn't the person that was on your crappy server?

Again, I will not apologize to anyone who deserves no respect. It is not a pathetic call to anyone to advise them that someone has threatened to assume my identity. Hell, in real life (something I'm sure hardkil has not experienced yet), you are required to advise banks and other people with whom you have a financial interest within a reasonable time period if your identity is stolen, or you become liable for the fraudulent charges made in your name. Also, server owners can check my IP against the ones in Black-Cell, and since I only use verizon.net and resnet.ucsb.edu, it shouldn't be hard to prove it's really me anyway. It would just be an inconvenience. Plus, regarding the irony, like I said the other day,

[01:49:58] <havoc9826> yeah, hi hardkil, thought it might be you

[01:50:05] <havoc9826> your IP is showing

Today I will say this:

[21:24:09] <%havoc9826> !iplog hardkil

[21:24:09] <&BCServ4> hardkil has used 1 IP(s):

[21:24:19] * Dns resolving 66..

[21:24:19] * Dns resolved 66.. to *.hsd1.ca.comcast.net

Now let's look at this:

Hi hardkil, nice double post. You've just made my day again I guess you were wrong about renegadeforums being abandoned. I hope you're enjoying the taste of your foot. A little bit of advice: if you're going to try to act like an e-thug who is older than everybody else, do a little research on the crap you're going to try to fling before you fling it. Have a nice life!
