Did I say I work for an ISP or in other words an Internet Service Provider. NO I work for a gaming software company there's a big difference. I can tell you worked at AOL which adds up to nothing or in other words = 0 Well, you noobs have wasted enough of my time. Good luck Renegade isn't going to be around forever, specially with all the new multi players coming out soon. I get them all for free its part of the job. Take care and have fun.
