It's an interesting fact that there are alot of non-warez trackers out there.

One belongs to C&C Community Modeler Proclone (BlitzkriegII) and is located at http://proclone.net/. He uses it to distribute videos of his work.

I am not sure what software he uses but a lot of my friends use BNBT, which is a very reliable piece of software.

But this has gone pretty Off-Topic.

BTW, if people are interested in discussing a Renegade Tracker of some sort, maybe a new post should be created in the General Discussion Forum. Yes? No?
