Screw IGN you guys.

<http://www.gametrailers.com/gamepage.php?id=2613>

EDIT: Except IGN does have some videos that you cannot find there. Well, I watched the interview and that just brought my hopes up so much. It definitely looks a lot like C&C, and even the way units move and attack each other is quite similar. I hope they have some kind of demo soon...

and just so you know, EA does write Nod correctly.
