I'm not going down the street yelling "I HATE MEXICANS" or whatever. I simply dislike Mexicans and anyone who smells like rice and beans. I fucking hate that smell when I'm trying to walk somewhere in public... You know how irritating it is to be walking around in a city, head to the mall, sit in the food court... Then some Mexican guy sits across from you and all you can smell is rice and beans instead of the food you're trying to fucking eat!?

I wonder, if you traveled to Germany, would you be overcome by the smell of beer and kraut? I have been known to eat an egg roll or three at a Chinese buffet.... I wonder..... when I leave do I smell like a chinc? Hmmmmmm..... So ACK, I have heard... you eat tuna all the time. I wonder, does that make you smell like a fish or is it just mean you are a big p.... never mind.

I don't think ACK is racist, he is just a tad ignorant, that is all. However, sometimes we have to worry about the ignorant ones the most. They tend to spawn a lot.
