Listen to me, and listen to me good. I have this card, sure it gets the job done, but that's it. THE FX5200 SUCKS.

Although, it completely depends on what you plan to do with it. For me, I don't play games anymore, I just program, therefore I don't need a "high end" card. But if you do plan to play games, buying this card IS THE BIGGEST MISTAKE YOU WILL EVER MAKE. (Possibly...)

Like Icedog said, you can find better, for a decent price. Don't short change yourself for a piece of shit.
