Im closing down Tiberium Desolation, i no longer have any time to spend on the mod and without a decent modeller the mod is going nowhere. So i wont patronise people by telling you that im finding a new modeller and that ill get back to the mod in a few months, it just wont happen! I want to thank klink for helping out. I may restart this mod in the future but for now its dead.

Oh and please no post saying "I TOLD U SO" "I knew this would happen"
