I liked your jokes lol and when you said blues clues i had a lil laugh. Great tutorial, not only do you show us how to make a map but you really teach us how to use 3dsmax effectively. Good job, I'd love to see some more video tutorials from you.

That's pretty much what I wanted to say Well done. I haven't done much mapping and am not really planning to, but I'm sure it will be useful sometime
