Somebody SERIOUSLY accuse BUSHY of treason. It only makes sense when you are a law abiding citizen. This is because he took the oath to protect this nation, and its borders , and he has fucking failed to do so..... Is anyone here familiar with the story about 2 border patrol agents doing their jobs and being sued by an illegal alien? This is just one fucked up incident. It is even more screwed up when you hear that Bush gave immunity to the illegal. If you don't know that story I can post it.....
