I've intentionally stayed out of this discussion because it takes a lot of energy to intelligently debate something like this - and I just don't have that kind of energy right now. But I will say one thing:

Please do not ever confuse the government of a nation with the nation itself. I love my country and would protect it with my life. I hate my government, and if needed would rally against it. So to expand on that, please do not confuse the military with the bad guys. They simply follow the orders of those appointed over them and are patriots. If there is conspiracy here it is because they were lied to as well.
