hold on... are you saying people do want a clan ladder? I could've sworn nobody other than the clans in the Clanwars.cc league gave a flying fuck about providing clan support to Renegade. It's certainly the impression I've gotten from this forum so far.

the17doctor wrote on Tue, 12 September 2006 13:58because the oldone didnt work, you got it. no...

the old one was crap ever since I got the game, and we weren't the official league then...

the17doctor wrote on Tue, 12 September 2006 13:58this shows laziness on EA's part, cos instead of fixing the ladder, they just handed it over for someone else to deal with.

Who cares, if ours is better than the old auto league? Isn't that a little bit more important than who runs it? You're focusing on all the wrong details here...
