KIRBY098Duke of Nukesmost the posts on the boards seem to be of declining quality. as much as I hate to say it...it might have been better when there was nothing but flames...then they were at least interesting

See Duke of Nukes posts in the America at War/Politics forum.

The place is on fire.....

Yea! Even an experienced firefighter like myself can't put those flames out...But then again, why would I want to? Burn baby burn! :twisted:
