lmao.. its turnt into an aohost topic!

Quote:Way to plug another hosting company I wouldn't rent from.

any paticular reason?

Quote:i have lag on aohost, the ping is usally 200 when an jellyserver it is 80 and many other servers.

thats probably due to location, although in my server i have a ping of 200-250 and ive never had lag issues?

Quote:Lag free, not really atm for our server...

yeah... thing is with your server is that nobody else on the box is having problems, and the ping/sfps/kbps seem to be fine.. 0.o have you tried fiddleing with the nut?
