It's not much, but atleast once a week I host a 4-16 player server with nothing but fan maps. The maps are great, it's just that no one has them. I do get people in my server who ask "where can I get that map?". I tell them, and presto, one more fan, has one more fan map. I don't think the community is as bad as it was with downloading fan maps as it was 5-6 months ago, so, we're doing better in my opinion.
