"DLoC on mIRC!" Hint: it's not called "mIRC". If you can't figure out what it's supposed to be... close your channel.

Also, maybe this kid should start typing like he's almost 20 years old. Yes, I can say "kid" because I am older.

it is called mIRC (IRC) for short. maybe you should go to the website? www.mirc.com and please dont try correcting someone if it doesn't need to be corrected.
