Crimson's at fault here, but she's too arrogant to face that, so she's spent the last couple of weeks trying to make someone else the bad guy - myself, Aircraftkiller, etc. And apparently, some people are gullible enough to swallow it.

Holding the most private details of my life that I trusted to a friend hostage and blackmailing me with them is CERTAINLY under the "anything" category. Blazer outlined a number of things that those logs contain that should not get out.

It's very obvious that if anyone else gave him a password to something, their address, phone number, picture, complained about their personal life, or anything else that they considered private information, they should be shitting themselves right now.
