For my reasons, "Search" is your friend

You're just as stupid as the17doctor

Coolrock, for me he was an awesome dood back in the WW days.

But the "cats" accident, his constant attack on mod newbies, the entire anti-reborn crap, abusing Crimson's trust and spamming the forums with crap, attacking people. And thats just a small part of why i think that he should be banned.

For me, Renegade is the last C&C Game by WestWood.
I love the game, i enjoy visiting these forums, i enjoy reading people's oppinion on anything thats happening and i enjoy helping people even with the smallest things.

What i DONT enjoy is reading crap, because the people producing it do it just because "they can".

That is why, because of his past actions, I think that Aircraftkiller should be banned from this forum.

Coolrock, that is why I think that Ack should be banned.
I don't understand what stupid you find about that. Just look around the other C&C Websites and point me to a forum where people flame eachother and DONT get banned.
