How the fuck can people live like this? Thinking that everything is a conspiracy working against humanity? Yes, there are plenty of evil people who have this type of vision to destroy the world, but to come to the conclusion that several of the world's leaders is trying to create this unified (and fascist) government? What's even funnier is the notion that it's even possible to make everybody obey their agenda, even with "mind control".

It looks like thrash has been playing a bit too much Yuri's Revenge and has lost grasp on reality.

There is no plausible way to kill off 92% of the world's population besides by nuclear war, but it would kind of ruin the idea of controlling the entire world when only 10% of it capable of sustaining life.
