Here's the forum link: http://unclanforum.proboards16.com/

I'm sure it was just a misunderstanding. Just tell them the situation there and they will unban you.

If you know the name of the person that banned you, let me know and I can tell the other UN guys that this person made a bad mistake and we will make sure it doesnt happen again, OK?

Sorry you had to go through that.

EDIT Just checked the forums, tthom=[UN]= has unbanned you, so you should be all set. Thanks for playing in UNRULES.
