Qualifications? Well, I don't have any "specific" qualifications off hand because I am doing this class alone. If you saw the forum that said "teachers" that is there for preparation of the lessons I am going to make, and will serve for better use in the future.

Right now I am not opening any positions for people helping in this class. YET. I will. I would like to further talk to you about this, please add me to your MSN. Maybe you can teach another class and the student program can be further expanded.
