What's illogical about that? Just because he thinks someone's an idiot doesn't mean that he thinks they don't have the right to visit and post here.

understand the english in that:

if someone dosnt like you, they are hardly likely gonna want you to stay.

now, wanting someone to leave and saying someone has no right to be here and post here is different.

does that make things easier to understand?

or are you gonna reply to this without thinking and do nothing but spam the boards?

no? good.

In your immature mind, sure, disliking means wanting the other person to be as far away as possible, but when you mature, your brain starts to think differently. Maybe I'm expecting too much from you to understand that, but you'll see in the upcoming years.
