[PAPirate wrote on Wed, 06 December 2006 09:56]Wow, this server sounds pretty darn cool - not sure about killing, that doesn't sound like something that belongs in a FPS shooter but the whole sword quest sounds like a barrel of laughs.

Is the server still up?

1) No, I think he took it down.

2) Lol. Shouldn't it be the other way around? I mean, the whole PURPOSE of an FPS is to kill... And not to find some sword that doesn't exist
