Why dont you go work on your own shit and stop messin with others. Isnt this the mod forum?
Show each other your ideas ask bout problems

No one here was "messaging" with him. He was showing off his models, and they pretty much suck.

GOD! Ack plz stop degrading Renegade with what your proposing- that all new modders go somewhere and die for the hell of it.

It's actually surprising to see this much ignorance in just one person. He never said that in this thread, or anywhere else. "Just work on one mod at a time and finish it instead of do a dozen different mods and never finish them." is no where near what your little mind came up with.

I'd like to find where ack said somethin like that out of his many flames but thats what i generalized. At least i dont go shooting my mouth off negatively about every single thing that displeases me.
