Lol, I d/led the scripts, but didn't install them because I have a strange premonition about new versions of things and bugs, so I read through the forum, and found, well, some complaints, most of them complaining about stuff I don't even know what it is, so I think for now I'll just stick with 2.90 or 2.9.2, whatever I got, until some stuff is fixed, cuz I mean, I really do appreciate you're trying to revamp a decreasingly popular game, but I'd rather have it just plain work than try to increase the look while risking bugs.

So update me when bugs are fixed, and then I'll considering checkin out 3.0
