I tried asking this before, and did not get the answer i was looking for.

When i was in Renegade chat in the game i went to look at server lists, when a in game pop-up came up that said i have no idea why i was suddenly disconnected... then i chose a server and it worked fine, since i quit renegade that time i have not been able to get back on to westwood online. Im sure there is a simple "button" to turn WOL back on, but i cannot find it. Sure i can play on gayspy, but i dont get the same feeling of ownage when i am on it.

"WESTWOOD ONLINE DICONECTED"

P.S. - PLZ dont tell me to reinstall it becasue i cannot find the data disk or the serial.
