Lol, your clan is probably filled with idiots, people like yourself.

You make fun of fl00d3d? Well, fl00d3d is the only man I have known to put so much work into one community, its not even funny. He's on almost 24/7 online just cause he worries allow about TsU + RenUnderground. And if you would like to have 18+18, 96% of them probably wouldn't know how to put the password in. Which doesn't leave you much against 18 hardcore tsu gamers.

You were proven wrong on your own forums by fl00d3d. And as I know fl00d3d, he doesn't lie.

My question is to you, why do you force everyone to have a name of troopr1-XX?
