It's at the locations Laeubi said now. I have added it to the list. I have reformatted it in HTML and also changes some of the words so it makes more sense, basically wrote the same thing in a different way. I also removed the capital letters from words that do not start a sentence or refer to something in quotes. If you need anything changes, email me at generalhavoc@nodnl.net
