Wow this has created a big argument.

As I always say in maps like walls and volcano "Defend the base"

If the ped is on, mine the hand, mine the barracks and then no-one can get in and keep on top of it too.

Also friendly fire should be on, keep people out of the way and anyone who sits in a building without moving for more than 2 mins should be booted. I've seen half a team wasting time while we're getting creamed..
