I and many others can enjoy myself without having to take any shit.

As always, drugs are for losers, whatever the effect it has on the body.

Only time you should be taking drugs is when you got a medical problem.

But anyhow, for the ones who do take, hurry up and overdose already, dont need selfish people that in this world.

"Yes it should be illegal -- but I shall give no reason."

Just say that. We don't want to hear, nor do we care about your patronization.
