I'll try to get some pics of the cnc boxes after I get the last 2 (Renegade and Generals) modeled/mapped.

Haunted House 2 is only a few betas away from finished -- like 3 max I think. I just need to get those boxes out of the way and also clean up the last bit of the vis errors. It's been really good having some good testers this time around. Thanks to them I've been able to track down a lot of vis errors all over. I've also been able to get the map more balanced thanks to them as well.
