gamemodding wrote on Wed, 17 January 2007 17:19 BHS need to actually think about how they are going to implement rengaard. when/if i'm still alive when RG 1.4 comes out i'll show you how easy it is to bypass. and this is me that's doing it. that's saying something, i'm never any good at that sort of stuff.

there are other things that made me not trust BI, as a result, i don't trust BHS either. You could simply be mature and inform BHS about your "working" bypass.

As for the topic: I was going to say "you", but I decided to vote for gamemodding instead. The reasons are obvious.
