i like the server (k... ping could be better from germany)

i like the rules&admins

i like the maprotation (k ... i hate glacier....but this is a good time for coffee) i like the players.... good fights with good enemys and allies...

Noone force you to play there.... so just go away to n00bstories or jelly... guess they won'T need you ehhh, so your saying that every person that gets wrongfully banned from a server should just lay down and accept it? sorry, but im not a cheater and i dont like being labelled one by a child that obviously knows nothing about the game itself.
