Btw the colts are currently choking and will continue to do so for the rest of the game. Manning sucks.

I agree with first part..Second part not so much..I enjoy watching both mannings play...Mainly because their entire family went to one of the colleges in my state... UMC

Wish Saints would have won
But they didn't. They got sat on.

And why does everyone worry about Grossman? I think he's proven himself the entire season ... how is this any different? I played in highschool and we won 6A championship - and I'm telling you that even though there are extra emotions, a good team will keep their cool and I think the Bears are more likely to keep their cool than a highschool team. They have this made.

College is way different than HS football, and Pro is way different from college football. I played for a Division 1A State-Semifinalist team in Michigan. I know what you're talking about, but they're playing on a whole other level than we did.
