There is actually only a few people here that actually tend to help people on a regular basis. You just insulted one of them.

You are the person asking for help, yet you call the people capable of helping you a nerd. And at the same time even managed to make yourself look like an immature newbie with your "lool" comment.

Ok, i appologize for that. But he was acting like : is that english ?? and trying to make fun of me, but w/e thanks to others that helped me. There are being made tutorials by Hero on non00bs-forums.ren-archive.com in the modding section. you should check it out for some nice stuff.
