Well considering you're trying to hijack other people's accounts and I haven't spoke with lccy yet ... I'm going to kindly ask you to remove the RenUnderground name from your server name. I'm not doing this to be retaliatory -- just out of respect for lccy and others involved. When you were given permission to add it to your servers name I had no idea you were Kry/Tyler/etc. and even after I found out I figured I'd talk to lccy then make a final decision. After tonight's fiasco I think I'd prefer you just take the name out completely unless you hear otherwise from Nightma12 or I. Thank you.
