ok what i meant is the old fashioned way, spanking. i remember when i was 8 i came home from school and told my mom its not for me anymore, she was like what are you talking about and i said i quit school. couldnt sit on my ass for a few days but as soon as i could i was back in school this is how i was taught manners and punished, and i would say i turned out pretty good, so thats going to be my method aswell.

now if i was to find out my kid is addicted to cocaine or any other serious drug, i dont think spanking them is the answer. more like giving them the choice, aadac/rehab and not going out for a few months (so i know the addiction is gone) or be disowned and move the fuck out. the only drug i will tolerate (to some extent) in my house is weed nothing else...
