So wait, heres a scenario:

He has access to everything you do right?

So then, say, hypothetically speaking, he cheats...(hacks, bypasses, w/e)

And used your account, and things go by- then people find out,
CRIMSON CHEATS

Would you be able to say--

It was my brother using my comp and had all the access to my stuff?

(like we havent heard that one before.)

Lock up your computer.

XP has a great "User" option.
