(Bears, Ravens, Patriots)

But then again, in the previous game, the Colts completely sat on the Ravens ... so I think both the Colts and the Bears made it to the Superbowl fairly and deservingly. I think the weather did have a factor in the game; as well as the fact that Grossman cracked under the pressure because he's not a Superbowl-quality GB. But saying that both teams sucked is a bit of a stretch. They both definitely deserved to play in that game.

Oh, I meant the Bears' game against Seattle. >.>

If anybody had an advantage with the weather, it was the Bears.

Grossman cracked under pressure because he's not a good quarterback. He was pretty good at Florida, but he was an idiot to leave too soon.

Both teams are not Super Bowl caliber.
